Why do you need to attend the HSA Community Meeting on the Budget?

- The City is currently projecting a $379.8 million General Fund shortfall in FY 11-12. The Mayor's Office will propose a significant reduction in the Department's General Fund support.
- The meeting will provide community members and non-profit organizations with an update on the City's funding projections and an opportunity to weigh-in on strategies to reduce Department costs.

What topics are going to be covered?

- FY2010/11 mid year reductions, Mayor's Office budget directives, economic forecasts, and spending plans.
- Potential service changes and program restructuring in divisions throughout the Department.
